DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Abstract, a) on line 11 delete "The elastic anisotropically conductive film" and b) delete lines 12-27 and page 151 since the original filed Abstract is beyond the 150 words limit range allowed for proper format for an abstract of the disclosure.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 2-8 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: regarding claims 2, 4 and 8 the primary reason for the allowance is due an anisotropically conductive connector comprising, in combination with other limitations, wherein the elastic anisotropically conductive film has initial properties that supposing that the total number of the conductive parts for connection is Y, an electric resistance of the conductive part for connection in a state that a load of  $Y \times 1$  g has been applied to the elastic anisotropically conductive film in a thickness-wise direction thereof is  $R_{1g}$ , and an electric resistance of the conductive part for connection in a state that a load of  $Y \times 6$  g has been applied to the elastic anisotropically conductive film in the thickness-wise direction is  $R_{6g}$ , the number of conductive parts for connection that a value of R1g of the conductive parts for connection, the number of is lower than 1 D is at least 90% of the total number conductive parts lower than 0.1 D is least 95% of the total number of the conductive parts for connection, and the number conductive parts for connection that a value of R6g is at least D at most 1% of the total number of the for connection that a value of R6g conductive parts for connection. Since claim 3 depends form claim 2 and claims 5-7 depend from claim 4, they also have allowable subject matter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
